Hey Candice, I'm keeping track of what's been going on while Dave's out so I can fill him in when he gets back on Thursday.

I wrote a brief summary of our (your!) call with Chris yesterday and want to make sure I accurately captured our conversation.

If you have time, can you take a quick glance at the summary. If not, no worries – I'm sure Dave will get the gist of where we're at and that he should address this issue as soon as he can. Thanks so much!
